THE LANGUAGE OF LOOKING NERIDAH STOCKLEY A SECULAR VIEW Artwork Title:

YOU ARE THERE WRITE A MESSAGE TO A FRIEND Imagine going for a walk in this artwork. Where are you? In a town, in the bush, at the seaside, on a hill, on a road..... What is the view like from where you are? What can you see? Are you close-up or far away from what you are looking at? Where is the horizon line? What is the weather like? Is the sun out? Is it cloudy? Is there a breeze blowing? What is the light like? Imagine touching different surfaces and describe the sensations and textures you feel. How does it feel underfoot? What can you smell and hear as you walk around? Brainstorm some words to describe the feeling or mood of this place.

Write a message to a friend about your walk that describes the view and the atmosphere.

Draw a picture of this place on the reverse.
